H. Location and how to reach NITK

The National Institute of Technology Karnataka (NITK) is located in Mangalore City, Karnataka, India. It is situated along the Kanyakumari-Mumbai National Highway 66. Mangalore, also known as Mangaluru, is a coastal city in the southwestern part of Karnataka, and NITK is positioned in the outskirts of this city with a campus set amid 300 acres of lush green surroundings with the Western Ghat Mountains to the east and the Arabian Sea to the west. With a temperature range of 18 to 38 degrees Celsius, the location has a fairly moderate and pleasant climate throughout the year and the fact that the campus is situated on the seashore adds an extra element of appeal with a refreshing and healthy climate. This location provides not only a peaceful and conducive environment for academic activities but also convenient connectivity to major cities in India and international destinations via road, rail, and air. All Service/Express Buses starting from Mangalore Bus Stand and going towards Udupi, stop near NITK Main Gate. A number of Private Taxis also available at Mangalore.

Mangalore Railway Station, located about 20 km away from the campus, ensures convenient rail access. Additionally, the Surathkal Railway Station being approximately 3 km away further enhances the connectivity for the NITK community. The Mangalore (Bajpe) airport being in close proximity, about 20 km away, adds to the ease of transportation. This airport serves as a vital link for both domestic and international destinations, making it convenient for students, faculty, and visitors to travel.

I. Ragging

If any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authority, concerned accused student shall be given liberty to explain and if his explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him / her from the institution.

Any disputes arising out of admissions shall be subject to Mangalore Court jurisdiction.
